

Let's continue our activities!

Dear all,

It is Spring time and our young thistles are ready for transplanting! All the VeggieMedCheeses team is working for:

1. preparing the experimental plots for transplantation and cultivation of our thistles for further extraction of the milk clotting enzymes
2. completing the chemical and technological characterization of the crude extracts prepared from the flowers collected from spontaneous thistles collected last Summer

Learn more about!

